

Prof. DAVID G. HENRY, SR.

Registered Patent Attorney

Professor of Patent Law – Baylor University School of Law

Chair, Intellectual Property Section – Gray, Reed & McGraw, P.C.

Entrepreneurship and MBA Instructor in Intellectual Property and Export Control Law - Hankamer School Of Business, Baylor University

Principal: TeXess IP and Export Control Law Consultants

* * * * *

Dallas, Texas USA / Washington, D.C. USA / Houston, Texas USA
+1(202) 657-4724

dhenry@grayreed.com / david_henry@baylor.edu / henry@texess.com

www.TeXess.com

Prof. David G. Henry, Sr., a Registered Patent Attorney, is a member and Practice Group Chair of the Gray, Reed & McGraw law firm, specializing in patent, trademark and copyright litigation, prosecution, and transactions, as well as export control law.

Prof. Henry:

- (1) advises businesses, universities and research institutions on issues, strategies and management of Intellectual Property (Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights);
- (2) litigates in intellectual property cases throughout the United States and North America;
- (3) processes patent and trademark applications before the United States Patent & Trademark Office, and other international Intellectual Property Offices; and
- (4) speaks frequently at professional conferences and business conventions on Intellectual Property and Export Control Law topics.